Libbey Honors Robert Frost

Since every Libbey student is at some time exposed to the works of this universal poet, the 1967 Edelian honors Robert Frost.

The recipient of a resolution by the United States Senate honoring his poetry, Frost is often called the poet of the common people. Although he has written on almost every subject, his central subject is humanity. Other poets have written about people, but Frost's peoms are the people—walking, working, talking, and living. Readers may enjoy his poetry for its seeming simplicity; or they may look more deeply for details of the delicate imagery he so vividly portrays. No matter where you are—on a country road or by a neighbor's fence—Frost will find you and reveal your inner self to you.

The lines of Robert Frost's poetry are from COMPLETE POEMS OF ROBERT FROST. Copyright 1916, 1923, 1930, 1939 by Holt, Rinehart, and Winston, Inc. Copyright 1944, 1951, (c) 1958 by Robert Frost. ## The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I —
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

A Sad Day For Libbey:
Mr. Rusie Retires

The Edelian Staff is happy to have Mr. Rusie share the spot light with Miss Krueger this year. For forty-three years Mr. Rusie dedicated himself to Libbey High School and its student body. His duties as teacher, club advisor, counselor, and principal have been carried out with unselfish, sympathetic understanding of the problems of those with whom he has dealt.

In return for your complete dedication, we dedicate this year's Edelian to our principal, Mr. Loy W. Rusie, and trust that he will have a well-deserved rest and pleasant retirement.

". . .Nothing gold can stay. . ."—Robert Frost's words have special significance this year when Miss Bernice Krueger retires. Miss Krueger—warm, friendly, always considerate of others, and a French teacher of unquestioned ability—has had a profound influence on the many students who have studied French in her classes. Among these are teachers in high schools and universities, radio and television broadcasters, lawyers, doctors—even our present Mayor of Toledo.

Miss Krueger helped to organize the still very active French Club at Libbey and has been associated with it as advisor since that time.

She earned the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts at the University of Michigan. She also studied at Cornell University, Middlebury French College in Vermont, Colorado College, the University of Toledo, and at the Sorbonne in Paris.

Organization affiliations include local, state, and National Education Associations, the American Association of Teachers of French, the American Association of University Women, the national scholastic honorary societies of Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Delta Pi.

Miss Krueger has many interests outside the classroom. Hobbies include reading; enjoyment of good music and dramatic performances on both stage and screen; and amateur photography. Travel has not been neglected, either; she has traveled extensively in our own country, in Canada, and in Europe.

After retirement, Miss Krueger expects to develop many new interests. She hopes to acquire a "green thumb", to become a more active member of the many organizations to which she belongs, and to travel—first Florida or California.

Miss Krueger's parting words are "Vive Libbey!"

Mayor John Potter visits his former French teacher.

Might there be a future Mayor in this class?

Mr. Frank Dick, in his third very successful year as superintendent of Toledo public schools, adds his tribute to Mr. Rusie:

"As Libbey High School says goodbye to its principal, Mr. Loy Rusie, I should like to congratulate the student body, the alumni, the faculty over the years, and the community on their good fortune in having had for 43 years the services of this devoted teacher and administrator.

Mr. Rusie has been with Libbey since the school was only a year old. He has served as teacher of biology, dean of boys, and for the past 20 years, principal of one of Toledo's outstanding high schools. He has seen thousands of boys and girls go forth from Libbey to become responsible, contributing citizens, not only in this city, but all over the world.

Few educators have left such a record of service. We are proud and fortunate to have had Mr. Rusie as one of the builders of our Toledo system of public education."

—Frank Dick

The theme of the 1966 Edelian was, "Happiness is . . . . .". It was an excellent theme because there are so many ways to find happiness even though our lives often seem filled with troubles.

To me happiness is, and has been for many years, being a part of Libbey High School. There have been many problems and times of sadness but the opportunity of meeting and working with so many fine people have made them seem quite insignificant.

I have had forty-three wonderful years at Libbey and I am proud to have been associated with such an outstanding school. I sincerely hope that the years you, of the class of 1967, have spent at Libbey have not only been educationally profitable, but have also been happy ones. I also hope that you have developed a sense of loyalty to your school that will always remain with you.

—Loy W. Rusie

In Memorium

The death of Mr. Virgil Miller, chief custodian and engineer, saddened the hearts of teachers and friends at Libbey this year. Mr. Miller, after devoting years to Whittier High School and Navarre Elementary, came to Libbey in January, 1962. In all, Mr. Miller gave 24 years of faithful service to the Toledo schools. In the few short years that Mr. Miller was here at Libbey, he made many improvements. His major accomplishment was modernizing our boiler room by ridding it of its coal boilers.

Mr. Miller was also active in outside affairs, and one of his favorite hobbies was fishing.

To his family and friends, the Edelian extends its deepest sympathy.

This page is also dedicated to the former Libbey students who have given their lives in Viet Nam.

Diane Baker, Karen Booher, Myricks McGee and Tom Hutton.

The Student Council is the governing body among Libbey students and organizations. It strives to promote school spirit among people associated with Libbey.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Doro'hy Bonser, the Student Council has successfully completed such projects as Libbey's first Queen Pageant, the annual magazine drive, the Homecoming Dance, a scholarship program with Mr. William Thomas from the Board of Education as the principal speaker, and the collection for Care at Christmas-time.

The Student Council held a bake sale and sold delectable sweets to hungry Libbey students. They also sold Libbey badges during basketball season in their never-ending effort to further school spirit.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is one of Libbey's outstanding organizations. Its members strive to encourage scholastic achievement among students of Libbey. The Honor Society's big money-making project this year was the production of Libbey's own Dating Game program. President Randy Carter acted as master of ceremonies, and there were commercials advertising senior activities. The proceeds were used for scholarships for National Honor Society members. They also held the annual scholarship program and the induction of new members.

The social events of the year included a National Honor—Alchemist Christmas party, the annual progressive dinner after first semester exams, and, for the first time in many years, a spring banquet.

Mr. James Norris, the new advisor, has contributed much to the success of this year's activities.

Did you ever wonder how a handful of people can get together one hour a day for approximately eight months and complete everything required to make up a year book? That was the assignment for the Edelian class at the beginning of the year. First, the section editors were named. Then came the selection of a theme. After that came the really hard work of obtaining ads, checking names, writing dedications and club activities, and the never-ending picture taking.

Under the drection of Mrs. Jean Hunsaker and Mr. Charles Martin, and with Mr. Rusie's help, decisions were made, deadlines were met, and the finished yearbook finally arrived at Libbey. It was formally presented at the senior banquet, and the class felt understandably proud of its accomplishment.

Crystal

Under the supervision of Mrs. Nancy Warsell, the Crystal class publishes the Libbey newspaper each month. They are the people responsible for giving Libbeyites the thrill of seeing their names in print. If you were lucky, you many have seen your picture in an edition of the Crystal.

A fall roast was held wth the Edelian class at Pearson Park. They ate, swung on the swings, slid down the slides, and went on nature hikes. In the spring, the Crystal staff had another roast.

A change in printing method was made this year, resulting in a better-than-ever Crystal, a paper which has consistently won coveted prizes through the years.

Periclean Literary Society

The Periclean Literary Society strives to promote literary study among sophomore, junior, and senior girls at Libbey. Together with the Phils and the Zets, the Peries put on a play at Halloween called "The Great Pumpkin's Party for literary societies from other schools invited to attend. True to Peri tradition, pumpkin pies were sold at Thanksgiving-time, and cherry pies were sold in commemoration of George Washington's birthday. Other aids to the Peri treasury were the sales of tags, stationery, hostess sets, and delectable baked goods to Libbey students. With the Phils, the Peries had a booth at Open House, where they served cider and doughnuts.

The induction of new members in late winter was one of the main social events for the Peries. At a later meeting the new members were shown part of the Peries' program of study by presentation of a short skit. The year ended with the annual Peri banquet and Tri-Lit dance.

Mrs. Ann Morgan is the Peri advisor.

Andrea Mendoza, Sharon Siler, Cathy Knight, Sherry King, Ginny Williamson, Darlene Strange

The Phils, under the supervision of Mrs. Linda Oechsle, strive to promote literary interest, scholarship, leadership, fellowship, and school spirit.

At one of their program meetings, Libbey's librarian, Miss Shirley Stewart, gave a talk about interesting books at the library. Phils also participated in the Tri-Lit play given for literary societies from other schools, "The Great Pumpkin's Party." At Christmas, they gave a Christmas basket to a needy family and brightened the cafeteria with decorations for the holiday season. During the breaks at exam time, the Phils sold candy bars to students while they patiently awaited their next exams. Again this year they sponsored the annual Libbey High Sadie Hawkins Dance. Activities of the year ended with the Phil banquet and Tri-Lit Dance.

Zetalethean Literary Society

The Zets exemplify their motto, "Nothing Without Labor," in their effort to serve Libbey and to further literary interest. Under the direction of Mrs. Nancy Warsell, the Zets have completed another successful year.

Zet funds were augmented by the sale of Christmas cookies and senior name cards.

Children at the Miami Children's Home had a special treat at Christmas with a surprise visit from the Zets' own Santa Claus, who passed out presents, and at Easter, when the Easter Bunny brought Easter baskets for the children. The Zets also served others by giving Christmas and Easter baskets to two needy families.

The fun-filled and prosperous Zet year ended with the annual Zet banquet and Tri-Lit dance.

Quorum Service Society

The newly-formed Quorum Service Society, under the supervision of Mr. Charles Owens and Mr. Wayne Davis, has tried this year to be of service to Libbey. Its purpose is to build the character of its members so they will become useful members of society.

One of their services to the school was the addition of prizes to the magazine sale drawing. They had a booth at open house, serving cider and doughnuts to Libbey visitors. In order to build their treasury, they held a car wash in the fall. They also did their best to bake goodies, or persuade their mothers or sisters to bake goodies, to sell to Libbeyites.

They ended the year with a banquet in honor of the senior members of the Quorum Service Society.

Future Teachers of America

Nancy Rolf, Diane Baker, Brenda Myers, Jean Ostman, Janet Ware

FTA strives to encourage an interest in teaching careers. One of the FTA traditions is the distribution of apples to the teachers at Libbey, and this was done again this year. Other FTA activities were serving refreshments at the December teachers meeting, selling brownies, book-covers, and candy. During the semester break after exams, they served breakfast to the Libbey faculty.

Libbey FTA went to Bowsher for a joint Christmas party, and later, Libbey's FTA played host at a return party. A mothers' tea was held, and new officers were inducted at this party. The big social event in the spring was the annual FTA banquet.

Mrs. Jean Pritchard and Miss Carol Kinney are co-advisors.

The FHA tries to help individuals improve personal, family, community living, now and in the future. This year they partcipated in the installation of the Start and Waite chapters of the FHA, and in a roll-call skit for the Sub-Regional meeting at Anthony Wayne High School. They also attended the State FHA convention in Columbus.

A "Get-Acquainted" roast was held at Walbridge Park in the fall. At Thanksgiving, the FHA gave a basket to a needy family. There was a Christmas Party for the members in the Home Ec. Department. Then, to round out the year, in the spring the FHA held such events as a Spring Style Show and a banquet in honor of the graduating senior members of the club.

Future Business Leaders of America

FBLA strives to increase knowledge of the world of business and instill leadership qualities within the members of the club. The annual candy sale was held in October, and FBLA members were always available with taste-tempting candy bars for any hungry Libbeyite who desired to diminish his healthy appetite. Baskets for the needy were given at Thanksgiving and Christmas. The FBLA Christmas party was especially pleasant, since the members were given gifts by a welcome visitor, Mr. Ben (Santa Claus) Myers, co-advisor.

In February, some of the FBLA members traveled to Columbus for the FBLA convention. Later in the year, there was a speaker at Libbey from Davis Business College. FBLA also held a roller-skating party before Easter vacation.

Members of the Business Department faculty serve as co-advisors.

Together with the National Honor Society, the Alchemists had a very successful Christmas party, and, as always, one of the main social events was the induction of the new members.

The Palette and Craft Guild, under the direction of Mr. Darrell Dunlap, again displayed the work of its talented members at art exhibits around Toledo. They also displayed signs around Libbey to boost school spirit.

Le Cercle Francais

To promote a better understanding of the French language, people, and customs: that is the purpose of the French Club. Their motto, En forgeant, on derrent forgeron, (Practice makes perfect) demonstrates their constant effort to relate themselves to the French way of life.

Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, co-advisor, gave a talk to Le Cercle Francais about her high school days in a French lycee. At another meeting Mr. James Bick showed color slides of France and told the club of his stay in the city of Orleans. Program meetings have also featured various phases of French civilization.

The French Club held more of their famous fudge and brownie sales for Libbey students after school. They also raised money by selling tags for football and basketball games. During the Christmas season the club had a Christmas party which included the singing of French Christmas carols. The year was ended with the annual spring banquet.

Miss Bernice Krueger, who helped to found this club several years ago and who has worked so hard to make it a success, retires from teaching this year. The club bids her farewell "avec nos meilleurs voeux et nos meilleurs sentiments."

During the frigid month of February, DECA sponsored an SOS project at Libbey to send soap to the soldiers in Viet Nam. They also carried out a candy sale project.

At a Junior Class meeting, Mr. MacLaren, supervisor of Distributive Education, told the juniors about the D. E. program of study.

The club is under the leadership of Mr. William Dross.

Bible Club

Charlene Harris, Phillip Stubblefield, Elise Gable, Charles Waters, Reggie McGee, James Neal, Bruce Maxwell

The Libbey Bible Club had a very successful year in promoting better understanding among the students of Libbey High School and in increasing their own knowledge of the Bible. They gave Christmas baskets to needy families and donations to Care.

The meetings have been informative and interesting. At one of them, Miss Beryl Ebner showed pictures of her trip to the Holy Land. As usual, the Bible Club participated in the annual Lenton Services. Concluding the year, the Libbey Club and the Scott High School Bible Club had a Bible Quiz.

The Bible Club has been fortunate to have Mrs. Juanita Hill as their advisor.

Activities Department

The people who work in the Activities Office have to be at school earlier than most other students, for it is their job to maintain the Activities Office and the Stationery Desk. They have to stay late after school in order to help Mr. Martin clear up all of the work for the day. Their many jobs include selling activities tickets and Edelians, passing out driving permits to those students who find it necessary to travel on wheels instead of on foot, and collecting tickets for the activities which are held in the auditorium.

Libbey Leaders are aides in the Girls' Gym. Their duties include taking attendance and doing other clerical jobs in the Physical Education office. They assist with the equipment and help to referee games. Mrs. Gloria Lindeman and Mrs. Harriet Billmaier are the advisors of the Libbey Leaders.

Today's classrooms furnish knowledge that will help in tomorrow's world. That's why Toledo Edison urges employees to improve their skills, abilities and mental growth through company-sponsored education and training programs such as:

EDUCATION ASSISTANCE PLANS
ADVANCED MANAGEMENT COURSES
FOREMANSHIP CLASSES
SPECIAL ON THE JOB TRAINING AND STUDY

But, we also encourage other people to continue their education so they can qualify for increasingly important jobs such as those at Toledo Edison.
